SOUGHT AFTER FOR ROBBERY.

Former Burlington Man Said to Have Taken $3,500 in Montreal.

Burlington, Oct. 25.—Louis Belair, a former accountant at the Provincial bank, Montreal, and a former resident of Burlington, is wanted for the theft of $3,500 from the Montreal institution at which he worked. A man has been arrested at Hartford, Conn., who, it is believed, is Belair. The theft was committed July 11 last, and up to last Saturday no trace of Belair could be found.

Belair has not lived in Burlington for a number of years, but has visited relatives here on various occasions. Emile Belair, one of his brothers, was sent to the insane asylum a few months ago after a peculiar fire was discovered in his house. Louis Belair moved in excellent society in Montreal, and the discovery of the crime came as a great surprise. The officers in this city have been watching for him, it being thought he might come here to visit his mother or other relatives.
